

WE'RE CASUAL EVERY FRIDAY
Because when we wear jeans, we donate $5 to charity.

You can donate, too!
This month, we're supporting:

Call for Help, Inc.

Call for Help, Inc. equips individuals to overcome crisis, trauma, and homelessness through stabilization, transitional and support programs to help them achieve their maximum potential for daily living.

Jeans for Jen started as an employee-run fundraiser at Bank of Belleville to help our own Jen Gross cover her medical expenses. Employees had the idea to make a weekly donation that allowed them to wear jeans to work on Friday. As time went on and Jen was able to return to the workplace, the idea for Jeans for Jen inspired employees to continue raising money for a variety of local and national charities, strengthening the community.
